PROFILE

Artist, photographer, and graphic designer who combines a variety of techniques in her work.

I approach every challenge with enthusiasm, fully committing myself to each project I take on. I adore creative workspaces and the people who fill them.

By working with a variety of industries (show business, artists, photographers, as well as hospitality and aesthetic clinics) and traveling extensively, I have gained strong work ethics and valuable knowledge. I've also learned to understand the needs and different levels of sensitivity of my clients.

I am keen on constant development and benefiting the company I am a part of. I am open minded and ready for new challenges.
